Hey! all you Cagle fans! I have a Charly Cagle b. circa 1793 the daughter of Roger and Catherine of NC. She married 11/1/1810, Benjamin Chance b.7/1784, d. before 6/1838, Copiah Co., MS. Does this give you any leads? Can you help me to track this line? I can help you if this couple match any of yours-----on the Chance side (not a pun). Plenty of Chances! (not a pun!!) Thanks heaps, Ellen

The Cagle line I am researching in MS has a Roger Cagle in it. His father's name was supposed to have been Roger too. It's possible your Charity was my Roger's sister. My Roger married Sidney Rushing in Copiah County Sept 19, 1825 but they've been very difficult to track with any degree of certainty after that. If this sounds like the line you're interested in I can give you what information I have and also the address of a man in MS who's done a lot more research on them than I have. Hope this helps.

Ellen

I'm a brand new member to this service and also new to genealogy research. While researching another Cagle line, I found the follow info on your Cagles. Lewis Cagle b circa 1763 N.C. Died after 1832, Amite Co.Ms. married Catherine Rutledge b circa 1765 N.C. died circa 1838 Amite Co. This couple had 4 childred: 1. Conrad Cagle married Celia Chance May 6, 1813 Amite Co Ms. 2. George W. Cagle 3. Charity Cagle b ca 1793 Tn married Benjamin Chance Nov 1 1810 Ms. 4. Elizabeth Cagle b circa 1793 - 1800 Ga married Eli Chance Sept 19, 1816 in Amite Co Ms. It is believed Lewis Cagle was of the Cagle family from Randolph Co. N.C. Celia, Benjamin and Eli were brothers and Sisters and were the Children of Philemon Chance. The Chances lived in Copiah Co. Miss. The Cagles I am Mainly interested in is the line of Henry Cagle b circa 1765 and d after 1830. He resided in Cabarrus, Montgomery and Anson Counties of N.C. He had 4 sons and 2 daughters. Two of the sons married 2da

1. David Cagle b before 1790 d after 1845

2. Henry Cagle Jr. b before 1800

I don't know for sure, but I think Charity Cagle's father Lewis and Henry Cagle are related, possibly even brothers. I hope this has helped you. If you have anything that would assist me please pass it on.

Thanks

David

Ellen,

The man I mentioned researching Cagles is Jim Cagle. His address is: 6003 Red Creek Rd.

Long Beach, MS 39560

He is hoping to someday publish a book on the Cagle family in MS since 1800, so if your Charity is a member of our line of Cagles I'm sure he'll be happy to help you out. I don't think he's on Prodigy so you'll just have to write him a note. He sent me some information on my line of the family and apparently has a great deal more on earlier Cagles. Roger Cagle and Sidney Rushing evidently had several sons, but I have only been able to confirm two from the 1860 census. Sidney appeared on the Leake County census with one son still living with her. His name was Andrew J. Cagle. Another son, Francis M. Cagle was married at this time to an Elizabeth Taylor and they were living with a William Hudson and his wife Mary, also in Leake County. Francis was supposed to have been my great-grandfather's father, but since he was also supposed to have been killed in the Civil War and my g-grandfather wasn't born until 1867 I have my doubts about that. At any rate Elizabeth Cagle and her four children appear on the 1870 census in Perry County. As you can see they are a little hard to follow, but if you write Jim maybe he can help. Even if Francis wasn't my g-g-grandfather I still have an interest in the family from the Rushing side because Sidney was my g-g-grandfather Claiborne Rushing's sister. Things tend to get a bit convoluted in the Rushing family tree. Hope the info helps a little bit. Claudine Rushing

Pat: Here is some info on John Fullbright Cagle. He was the son of Leonard Cagle. Leonard b circa 1780 probably in Moore, Montgomery, or Mecklenburg Co. N.C. I have no info on his parents at this time. By 1803 Leonard Cagle had married and was living in Lincoln Co. N.C.. By 1816 he had moved to Haywood Co N.C. where he remained until the 1820's. At that time he moved to Ga and was living in Henry Co. near Atlanta, according to the 1830 Fed. Census. By 1850 Leonard had moved to Chattooga Co. near the Ga/Al state line. Leonard was a wagon-maker by profession according to the 1850 Fed Census. The author of the book "CAGLE PEOPLE" did not know the date & place of his death but stated that it was most likely in Ga in the 1850's. The children of Leonard are 1) Jacob Cagle b 1804 N.C. 2) Joseph Cagle b 1808 N.C. 3) Lydia Cagle B 1810 - 1815 N.C. 4) John Fullbright Cagle b 1817 N.C. 5) Benjamin F. Cagle b 1819 N.C. As I mentioned in my earlier note, John Cagle moved to Ark. by 1862 where he died in 1888. Hope this helps you. If you have any info on any other Cagles, please let me know. One of the Cagles I'm looking for in this time period is George Cagle b ca 1808 N.C. and married Milly Hinson

Good Luck - David

I don't know about Ellen but William married Mary Ann Stewart in Marion County 29 Dec 1886. Noah was my great-grandfather and there is some doubt as to whether Francis was his father. Francis was supposed to have died during the Civil War and Noah wasn't born until 1867. I haven't been able to confirm any of this yet. Francis's parents were Roger Cagle and Sidney Rushing who married in Copiah County 19 Sept 1825. I have more info about Noah and his family but the earlier generations moved around a lot and have proven very difficult to follow. Let me know if you want anything on Noah.
